

ECODISTRICTS MEMBERSHIP

Visionary City Makers, It's Time to Mobilize

Our community of EcoDistricts members are propelling a new approach to urban regeneration that embraces collaboration, transparency and peer-to-peer learning to address the biggest challenges facing cities today. As an organizational member, you will enjoy access to compelling business benefits and industry leadership opportunities designed to put you in touch with some of the biggest innovators and markets leading the urban regeneration industry.

Your team will be fast tracked to certification and accreditation, while enjoying savings on practitioner education programs, and access to the EcoDistricts Information Exchange, arming them with the resources essential to put the EcoDistricts Protocol to action — starting at the neighborhood level.

Together with our members, we aim to build an ever-expanding network of urban regeneration leaders empowered to build the thriving cities of tomorrow.
